One Apartment One Pet Dog

MCC plans to follow Bengaluru Model

Mysuru, June 7 (RK&BCT)- Following the footsteps of Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP), the Mysuru City Corporation is all set to bring in a rule where licences for pet dogs will be mandatory. The BBMP has decided to implement the pet dog licence rule and it has been approved by the State Government on June 4 with the main clause being the limitation on the number of pet dogs that can be reared. The rule says that there must be only one pet dog per apartment.

However, the BBMP's regulations have not gone down well with pet owners. Facing severe backlash, the BBMP is now thinking of placing the proposal before the Council and later implement the rule.

REVIVAL OF OLD PROPOSAL

Soon after the BBMP announced its dog licensing regulations, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) decided to revive its old proposal to implement the pet dog licence rule. The proposal to implement the rule was mooted in September last year after a child was mauled by a pet dog in Kuvempunagar on Sept. 7, 2017.

Two-year-old Amoghavarsha was attacked and scalped by the family pet Rottweiler when he was playing along with the animal at Dattagalli Second Stage near Kuvempunagar. After the attack, the little boy bore several gnashes on his head and he underwent multiple plastic surgeries and other related corrective procedures at a city hospital.

Taking the dog attack incident seriously, the MCC had then proposed to bring in the licence rule within a week. Assistant Director of MCC Veterinary Department Dr. S.C. Suresh had then told Star of Mysore that once the licence rule was implemented, all pet owners in the city will have to get their dogs registered.

MCC COUNCIL TO DECIDE

Justifying the revival of the rule, Dr. Suresh told SOM this morning that a team of officials will visit Bengaluru to study the rule implemented there and prepare a fresh proposal to implement the same in Mysuru.

No screening of Rajini's Kaala in city theatres today

- Mysuru Film Exhibitors Association waits for outcome of Bengaluru meeting
- City Police to provide full security to theatres willing to screen the movie

Mysuru/Bengaluru, June 7 (RKB&KS)- Despite the High Court clearing the way for screening of Tamil superstar Rajinikanth starrer Kaala, the theatre owners in Mysuru have decided not to screen the movie today as pro-Kannada organisations are protesting against the screening following the actor's recent remarks on Cauvery issue that has hurt the sentiments of Kannadigas.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, M.R. Rajaram, Secretary of Mysuru City Film Exhibitors Association, said "For the time being, Kaala is not being screened in city. We will see the situation in Bengaluru and also the outcome of the meeting which is going on there. Then we will decide whether to screen the movie or not. The Police have extended their co-operation to provide adequate security to theatres willing to screen the movie as per the HC order, provided the theatre owners inform the Police in advance."

Jeevan Kumar, Proprietor of Rajkamal Theatre in Shivarampet, told SOM, "I have not booked the movie. Why should I take risk and suffer loss if the movie is not allowed to screen. The distributor will also not refund my money. I have suffered losses earlier and hence I have not taken interest on Kaala."

Civilised Chaos

Scholarly chroniclers often cite many civilisations of the distant past in glorious terms. Indus Valley Civilisation of more than thirty centuries vintage shines in the august company of Roman as well as Greek Civilisations that existed about 3,000 years, both resting in the pages of their history. Other regions of the world, including China, Japan and South America too find their due place in the chronicles. The parameters considered for differential ratings of the past civilisations put the spotlight on Indus Valley Civilisation marked by distinguished scholarly pursuits of the people of that genre. That spotlight has lost its brightness over the past several centuries bringing the land's present generation to a pathetic state of Indians at large looking to the West in pursuit of prosperity in total neglect of its rich heritage to be traced only in ancient texts. The heightened desire to urbanise the land with disdain is ample testimony to the ongoing change in civilisation of our times.

The most commonly felt and also expressed desires of people at large are first to get rich and then to live long to enjoy the comforts of life, possibly reaching to 100 years without getting bugged by ill health. The rising presence of people sparing no efforts to fulfill these desires in urban spaces is all that civilised chaos for all to cause and suffer.

Monarchs, dictators, chieftains, successful entrepreneurs, hereditary landlords, bureaucrats in high posts, fraudsters and so on, not to forget the land's crop of elected representatives of people in present times command riches accruing to them in a wide range of diverse means. The first three classes of the foregoing mix of the wealthy sections having witnessed their shrinking presence, the rest are not only having a field-day but also to be found invariably in urban spaces comprising metropolises, mega cities and towns hosting chaotic scenes of different degrees. The rich fraternity, commonly identified as crorepathis or billionaires (in modern parlance) is reportedly on the rise both globally (including China) and nationally in India, unfazed by the worsening chaos, in veiled civilisation.

India's billionaire count is expected to triple in the next decade securing the country third rank for their number in the world (USA-884, China-357, India-357), currently said to be 2,252. Which class of the rich listed above will dominate is not a puzzle. For the rest, one is prompted to cite the saying: If wishes were horses, beggars would ride them.

In many organisations, the Human Resource Manager dons the additional role of 'happiness officer.' There are also companies that hire happiness coaches or "funsultants" to bring lightness to the workplace. There are start-ups that try out-of-box ideas to spread cheer among employees. Gurgaon-based BigFoot Retail Solution has a Labrador named Bruno on its pay roll. Designated Chief Happiness Officer, Bruno's job is to go cubicle-hopping every day, spreading cheer. Once in three months, Bruno undergoes training in office etiquette.

Fined for towing car on back

Zhejiang: A man was caught on camera in an unconventional method of towing a sedan on the back of his motorised tricycle.

A surprised driver on a Zhejiang province road captured video of the tricycle carrying the much larger car as it balanced on its cargo compartment.

Police said the man told officers he had recently purchased the car and was taking it to a scrapyard to sell for parts. The man was fined $200 and received 9 points on his license.

According to a report, the man was carrying the car on his vehicle to save some money instead of hiring a towing van.

Penalty for house's 'Starry Night' paint job

Florida: A pair of Florida homeowners were fined $100 per day after refusing to cover up their house's paint job -- a mural of Van Gogh's "Starry Night." Nancy Nemhauser and Ludomir Jastrzebski said they were initially given a fine of $250 a day, but it was reduced to $100 a day later. The fines were initially capped at 31 days, but Magistrate David Tegeler ruled Thursday that the city of Mount Dora can continue imposing the daily fines until the mural, which the officials allege violates city code, is removed.

Officials said the painting is considered a sign by the city and is earning business for the artist who painted the mural while causing a distraction for drivers.

The couple said the fines have accumulated to more than $8,000. Jeremy Talcott, the couple's attorney, said they don't plan to pay any fines until they have exhausted their options in Court.

MGP Monthly Meeting on Property Tax

Mysuru, June 7- Property tax paid by Mysureans has a huge impact on how Mysuru develops. However, each year MCC has not been able to reach the target which itself is less than the potential amount that can be raised by an efficient organisation.

In 2015-16, MCC was able to collect only Rs. 70 crore from property tax. The budget for 2016-17 was raised to Rs. 140 crore which was the right action. However the actual collection was Rs. 95 crore (as per MCC website).

For 2017-18 property tax budgeted was Rs. 125 crore which was less than what was budgeted during the previous year. These statistics clearly point out that MCC has not been efficient in collecting property tax. At the same time, honest tax-payers are facing many problems.

To discuss these twin problems of how to help MCC to increase collection of property tax and also to help the tax-payers, Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) has organised an interaction with three Revenue Officers from MCC — Kumar Swamy, Arasu Kumari and Prasad — June 10 (Sunday) at MGP's office, 6/1 Vivekananda Road, Yadavagiri.

Tax-payers are requested to send their questions and suggestions to MGP through email: mygrapa@gmail.com. For details call MGP on Ph: 2515150, according to a press release.

Poor quality railings in Nanjangud Temple

Sir,

The iron railings in Nanjangud Temple for general queue is of very poor quality. It is not welded but screwed with too many nuts and bolts. The screws are protruding outside bolts dangerously. These might injure the visitors and devotees, especially kids.

However, the railings inside the temple are that of steel and cleanly laid. Similar railings need to be installed at all the temple queues to prevent injuries to devotees.

Governor Vajubhai Rudabhai Vala, Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy, Dy.CM Dr. G. Parameshwara along with the newly-appointed Ministers at Raj Bhavan in Bengaluru yesterday.

Six MLAs from Mysuru region make it to HDK Cabinet

Bengaluru, June 7 (KMS& BCT)- The 15-day-old H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) Cabinet in Karnataka was expanded yesterday with the induction of 25 ministers — 14 from Congress, 9 from Janata Dal (Secular) and one each from Bahujan Samaj Party and KPJP.

Six MLAs from Mysuru region — G.T. Devegowda, S.R. Mahesh, C.S. Puttaraju, D.C. Thammanna, C. Puttarangashetty and N. Mahesh — were sworn-in as Ministers along with other Ministers by Governor Vajubhai Rudabhai Vala at the Glass House of Raj Bhavan.

Chief Minister Kumaraswamy, Deputy Chief Minister Dr. G. Parameshwara and several Congress and JD(S) leaders were present during the oath-taking ceremony. The swearing-in of the new Ministers which began at 2.12 pm was followed by a Cabinet meeting chaired by Kumaraswamy.

While forming the alliance government, both parties had agreed to share the 34 portfolios in the ratio of 2:1, with the Congress getting 22 and the JD(S) 12, including the Chief Minister's post. Along with Chief Minister Kumaraswamy and Deputy Chief Minister G. Parameshwara, the Cabinet strength stands at 27 at present. However, the portfolios of the Ministers have not yet been announced.

The coalition Cabinet is a blend of youth and experience and 12 of them are first-timers. However, several senior leaders from both the parties have been denied a place. With yesterday's expansion, seven more vacancies have to be filled.

In terms of caste, Congress has managed to strike a balance by providing fair representation to all major castes/communities, while the JD(S) provided more representation to the dominant Vokkaliga community.

Lobbying by the newly sworn-in Ministers to get key portfolios is said to be the main reason why the allotment of Ministries was put on hold for now.

Senior Ministers in both the Congress and the JD(S) are mounting pressure on the party to give them plum portfolios.

The expansion sparked off a wave of dissidence and protests, especially in the Congress camp, by those who did not find themselves in the list.

Several seniors in the Congress including H.K. Patil, M.B. Patil and Ramalinga Reddy have been left out.

Mysuru Ministers share their views

G.T. Devegowda

Sixty-eight-year-old G.T. Devegowda, who grabbed the attention of the State by defeating former CM Siddharamaiah from Chamundeshwari in Mysuru, has landed in the Kumaraswamy Ministry. The Vokkaliga leader emerged as a giant killer.

Fondly called GTD in political circles, his is a second stint in the Ministry as he was the Co-operation Minister in the Cabinet of Kumaraswamy who headed a JD(S)-BJP coalition government in 2006. He is a four-time MLA (as he had won twice from Hunsur earlier) and was in the race for a Ministerial berth ever since Congress announced its support to JD(S) form the government.

GTD has the experience of competing in the APMC and Cooperative elections. He was elected as Mysuru ZP member twice and also served as ZP President. Though he switched over to BJP when B.S. Yeddyurappa became the CM, he returned to the JD(S).

Speaking to SOM, G.T. Devegowda said that he has been honoured by CM Kumaraswamy for his electoral victories and the CM had kept in mind the service he had rendered to the people under different capacities. "Public service is important for me and I will do justice as a Minister and will efficiently manage any portfolio assigned to me," he said.

S.R. Mahesh

K.R. Nagar MLA S.R. Mahesh, who won by a wafer-thin margin of 1,779 votes in the recent election, is a hat-trick MLA and has made it to the Ministry. Though his political career took shape with the BJP, he switched over to the JD(S) and won the elections in 2008. Mahesh is a close confidante of CM Kumaraswamy. 52-year-old Mahesh is a Vokkaliga, with an educational qualification of B.Sc. Though he was defeated in 2004 from the BJP, he later joined JD(S) and went on to win the constituency thrice, in the year 2008, 2013 and 2018. He also served as Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Legislature.

Mahesh told SOM that he has become a Minister for the first time and considers himself as lucky. "I thank CM Kumaraswamy for recognising my 30-year service in public life. I will serve in whatever portfolio assigned to me and fulfil the wishes of the people of my constituency, people of the State and JD(S), my party," he said.

C.S. Puttaraju

Fifty-four-year-old C.S. Puttaraju, who has won the Melukote Assembly constituency in Mandya district, is an influential Vokkaliga leader. A three-time MLA, he has studied PUC.

He made a comeback to State politics as he was the MP of Mandya Lok Sabha from 2014. He fought against the 'sympathy wave' following the death of Melukote MLA and farmer leader K.S. Puttannaiah and now has made it to the Ministry.

Puttaraju won in 2004, 2008, and 2018 elections. He was defeated in the 1999 and 2013 elections. He also suffered a defeat against actor-turned-politician Ramya during the Mandya Lok Sabha by-elections in 2013. However, he defeated Ramya in the 2014 Lok Sabha elections.

Elated on being appointed as a Cabinet Minister, Puttaraju told SOM that he will strive for development of State and its people. "I will perform in such a way that I will bring credit to my party and my voters. I will strengthen the hands of CM Kumaraswamy in providing a pro-people administration," he said.

When Francis presented the cheque to the bank for the repayment, the bank officials did not make the payment as Kumar had asked the bank officials for 'Stop Payment.' Following non-payment of the money, Francis registered a case in the Court. Judge Bheemappa Mola, who heard the arguments, imposed affine of Rs.5,000 on the Constable to be paid to the State and ordered Constable Kumar to pay Rs.3.25 lakh to Contractor Francis.

Loan waiver: Farmers' delegation to meet Chief Minister on June 8

Mysuru, June 7 (PM&US)- With the subject on waiving farmers' loans still remaining unclear, a delegation of farmers has decided to meet Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy in Bengaluru on June 8 to clear all ambiguities.

Disclosing this at a meeting of farmers of Mysuru and Chamarajanagar district at Kuvempu Park near Gun House here yesterday, State Sugarcane Growers Association President Kurubur Shantakumar contended that the CM was delaying the announcement of waiving farm loans as promised by JD(S) prior to elections.

He recalled that the CM's meeting with farmer leaders in Bengaluru on May 30 remained inconclusive and indecisive with apprehension and anxiety still haunting the farmers.

He said that the government was contemplating to waive farm loans taken between April 1, 2009 and Dec. 31, 2017 which would not cover many farmers.

He suggested the span to be changed to April 1, 2005 to Mar. 31, 2018 with no discrimination of farm loans as big or small. He also sought waiver for farm loans taken from leading private banks like HDFC and ICICI.

Farmer leaders Devaraj, Bhagyaraj and T. Somashekar, Shankar attended the meeting.

Decoding Mythology

Dr. Devdutt Pattanaik - Author, Speaker, Illustrator, Mythologist

The Gita without the Mahabharata

The Gita is a part of the Mahabharata. It is the dialogue of 700 verses between Krishna and Arjuna just before the Kurukshetra War, where the Pandavas fight the Kauravas.

This dialogue is found in the Bhisma Parva, one of the 18 books of the epic. Clearly, such a long and complex conversation could not have taken place at the crucial hour before the war. Some say, it takes place in a mystical time and space, and not in mundane history and geography. Others say, these verses are interpolations made by Brahmins later to include Vedanta philosophy in the great epic, thus making it a religious text, part of the wider Vaishnava and Vedanta tradition. In fact, many people see the Gita as independent of the Mahabharata, as a philosophical treatise that contains in summarised form key concepts of Hinduism such as atma, yoga, dharma, karma, gyana, bhakti and moksha.

However, when we remove the Gita from the Mahabharata we miss out on the context. And so, miss out much of the learnings. The most obvious context is that this is a philosophy presented in a crisis that needs to be impatiently resolved, considering the timing of the crisis — armies are waiting to fight when Arjuna has his doubt followed by a nervous breakdown. Its purpose is to get someone who is unwilling to act, to act fast. It is very different from say a Shiva-Shakti conversation atop Mount Kailasa, where there is no war to be fought or won. The Gita is a conversation with a clear end-objective of action, a behavioural shift, if not an attitudinal shift. It is not simply an intellectual exercise.

The second context is that of family. This is not just any fight or crisis. This involves a family. Arjuna has no problem with violence. Mahatma Gandhi went out of his way to prove that the Gita is about non-violence and the war is just a metaphor, which is just stretching the point a bit too much. It is a story of violence and property fights. Arjuna would have no problem killing the Kauravas if they were strangers; but they are family and so he wonders if that is appropriate, for is not a warrior supposed to protect his kinsmen? To this Krishna presents the idea that the 'whole world is his family' through his Vishwarupa form, yet he has to get some family members to kill others, to nourish themselves, as part of the circle of life — the eaters and the eaten. So he asks Arjuna to reflect on the boundary that separates family from strangers. Why is killing one group acceptable and not the other?

The third context is the war itself. In popular narratives especially amongst nationalists, the Bhagavad Gita is a motivational speech, a rousing inspirational talk, given by Krishna to get Arjuna to kill the Kauravas and win the war. We are told that Arjuna is fully enlightened at the end of the discourse and ready to fight. But when we read the remaining story, after the Gita, we realise that is far from true. Arjuna keeps hesitating when it is time to kill Bhisma and Drona and Karna. War becomes personal only when his son Abhimanyu is killed. And, in the end, the Pandavas have victory — but all their children are dead. The Dharma war does not necessarily have a happy ending. It's a pyrrhic victory full of unwanted collateral damage. That is the fruit of karma.

God's Coffee

Is the cup important ?

By N.K.A. Ballal,
Retd. Sr. Vice-President, ITDC

A group of alumni, highly established in their own careers, got together to visit their old University professor. Conversation turned into complaints about stress in work and life. Offering his guests coffee, the professor went to the kitchen and returned with a large pot of coffee and an assortment of cups. Porcelain, plastic, glass, crystal, some plain looking and some expensive, some even exquisite. He then told them to help themselves to the coffee.

Ballal

When all the students had a cup of coffee in their hand, the professor said, "Did you notice, all the nice looking expensive cups were taken up, leaving behind the plain and cheap ones. While it is normal for you to have the best for yourself, that is the source of your problem and stress. Be assured that the cup itself adds no quality to the coffee. In most cases the more expensive the cup, it mostly hides what we drink. What all of you really wanted was coffee, not the cup but you consciously went for the best cups, and then you began eyeing each others' cups."

Now consider this. Life is the coffee. The job, money and position in society are the cups. They are just tools to hold and contain life and the type of cup we have does not define nor change the quality of life we live. Sometimes, by concentrating only on the cup, we fail to enjoy the coffee God has provided us.

God brews the coffee not the cups. So enjoy your coffee. The happiest people don't have the best of everything, they just make the best of everything they have... Live simply, love generously, speak kindly and leave the rest to God. And let others enjoy life too.

What a profound statement on life, explained so simply. The professor explained to his students the real meaning of life. Do try this experiment with your friends and relatives at home, the result would always be same. People always would try to grab the best and the most expensive cup little realising that it really adds no taste to the coffee. If the coffee is bad, the most expensive cup is worthless and if it is good it would taste excellent even in a paper cup too.

Have you noticed that relatives who give expensive gifts are always welcomed with open arms rather than relatives who give meaningful gifts like a lovely card with a lovely message. Money speaks !

A visit to any temple is noteworthy to prove the above point. That coffee is important and not the cups. VIP and VVIPs come in hordes, do not want to stand in queue, get pampered by the priests who are ready to do anything as long as they get their dakshine. The VVIPs forget the real purpose of coming to temple is to pray to God and not show off their influence or money power. But that is what they do. Stand in front of the deity with garlands and shawl around their own necks!

Life (which itself is a gift of God) is meant to be enjoyed but we become so engrossed in meaningless and mundane things that we forget to enjoy life. If one just sits down and makes a list of things one does everyday, the result would be shocking. The same "routine" is done day in and day out for days, weeks, months and sometimes years too. Ninety percent of our lives we live by following a routine and only about ten percent is done differently which gives us the pleasure and joy. Like going on a holiday with family or hiking etc. Since one has to live and for that one has to earn too, it is not possible to get away from the routine but the man who is able to change the equation and make things differently for at least twenty percent of his life is more happy and joyful.

Look at the world with positiveness and you will be surprised how things will change for better. Learn to enjoy the coffee and not to bother about the type of cups.

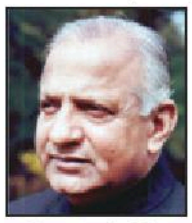
D. Devaraja Urs' 36th death anniversary observed

Mysuru, June 7 (YDS&NNN)- There are very few Chief Ministers like D. Devaraja Urs. No one has been able to give the administration like him so far, said Dr. D. Thimmaiah, former Director, Health and Family Welfare Department.

He was speaking at the 36th death anniversary of D. Devaraja Urs organised by Urasu Jagriti Academy at the District Kannada Sahitya Parishat premises here yesterday and said that Urs would always say that the Dalits, Minorities and the poor belonged to his caste. However, today caste politics play a dominant role and it should go. People's leaders like Devaraja Urs are the need of the hour, he added.



Devaraja Urs

Former Forest Department Secretary and Devaraja Urs Bidiruvana Organisation President A.C. Lakshmana said that along with social concern, Devaraja Urs also had great concern for environment.

District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Y.D. Rajanna, Sandhya Suraksha Trust President B.R. Nataraj Jois, District Sharana Sahitya Parishat President M. Chandrashekar and Urasu Jagriti Academy President Dr. M.G.R. Urs were present on the occasion.

Wild elephant enters village near Nagarahole

Chases farmer, damages bike in tribal hamlet

The wild elephant that crossed a barricade at Veeranahosalli in Nagarahole Reserve Forest and entered the village.

Honda Unicorn bike that was damaged by the wild tusker.

Nagarahole, June 7 (Mahesh &KS)- A wild elephant, which crossed a barricade made of iron railings of railway line at Veeranahosalli in Nagarahole Reserve Forest last night, has this morning destroyed maize crop and banana plantation nearby besides chasing a farmer who was ploughing his field and damaging a bike of a tribal, which was parked in a tribal hamlet.

The lone tusker, after destroying crops and banana plantation, tried to cross over the barricade to go into the forest this morning but in vain and had stayed put there.

Villagers of Kolavege, in their attempt to send the tusker back to the forest, chased it but the tusker entered the Chikkahejjur Tribal Hamlet forcing women and children to stay inside their houses. The tusker then damaged the Honda Unicorn bike (KA-45 Q-4262) of one Ramesh, which was parked outside the house.

The tusker then entered the field of one Kumar, who was ploughing the field and chased him. But Kumar managed to escape from the tusker.

Forest Department officials, who rushed to the spot, removed two railway railings of the barricade which is installed all along the forest border and chased the tusker back to the forest.

Luckily, no one was injured in the incident and the tusker too had stayed calm despite villagers venturing close to it to take pictures on their mobile phones.

Villagers of Kolavege venturing too close to take a look at the wild elephant before it was chased into the forest.

Echo of abolition of Jamma Tenure

MLA opposes Jamabandi rule to fix land revenue in Kodagu

Ponnampet, June 7- Virajpet MLA K.G. Bopaiah has criticised the move by the Revenue Department that has made it mandatory to follow the 'Jamabandi' of the year 1912 to fix revenue for a particular property and conversion of that property from 'Jamma' to 'Sagu.'

According to the MLA, the move is illogical. "Kodagu Assistant Commissioner has been returning the files of revenue assessment and land conversion taking the excuse of Jamabandi rules. This is another anti-people move by the Revenue Department. The State Government must immediately withdraw the rule as it is not right and will put people to severe inconvenience, Bopaiah said.

As per government records, a Jamabandi is Record of Rights of a village. The Jamabandi register contains names of owners, area of land, shares of owners and other rights. It also indicates cultivation, rent and revenue and other cesses payable on the land. These records are documents that are maintained for each village within its Panchayat.

Addressing reporters at Ponnampet recently, the MLA said that in 2013, when the BJP was in power in Karnataka, it had brought amendments to Karnataka Land Revenue Act. As per the amendment, the Revenue Department has to fix revenues for "Baane" and other lands.

MLA K.G. Bopaiah

"Now, earlier rules and regulations are not to be followed by the Revenue Department. People are being troubled in the name of regulations under the Jamabandi," he said.

"The Kodagu Assistant Commissioner has recently returned hundreds of files pertaining to fixing of land revenue and conversion of land.

This is unacceptable and the officer's move has put a lot of people under severe inconvenience. Many poor people have become the victims of official high-handedness and they are visiting Revenue Department offices on a daily basis to get their records done," the MLA said.

Bopaiah alleged that the Assistant Commissioner's move will give room to corruption in the already corrupt department as the officials will extract their pound of flesh from poor land owners. "The Deputy Commissioner must intervene immediately and must not test the patience of the people," he said and demanded the immediate withdrawal of the archaic Jamabandi rule.

Bopaiah warned that if the Jamabandi rule is not withdrawn within the next eight days, the BJP will lay siege the Deputy Commissioner's Office and stage a protest.

Cerclage to manage Cervical Incompetence

Gouri, 34 years old, married for 8 years had eight pregnancy losses. Out of the eight pregnancy losses, four losses were in the first part of pregnancy and four losses were between fourth – seventh months of pregnancy. Looking at her previous history, where she had had pregnancy losses between 3–7 months, a decision was taken to do a trans-abdominal cervical cerclage – a stitch placed at the level of internal os or around the cervix through the abdominal route. She conceived again and this was her 9th pregnancy. The abdominal cerclage was still in place. The patient was started on Low Molecular Weight Heparin (LMWH) right from the time that the pregnancy was confirmed to be situated inside the uterus. She was also found to be mild diabetic. At 32 weeks a Doppler showed a falling resistance in middle cerebral artery with uncontrolled hypertension. The patient was taken for Elective LSCS and delivered a male baby weighing 1.65 kgs.

Dr. Devika Gunasheela

Cervical incompetence is a medical condition in which the neck of the womb (cervix) in a pregnant woman begins to open and thin out much before the date that the baby is due to be born. Cervical incompetence may cause miscarriage or preterm birth during the second and third parts of the pregnancy. Cervical incompetence occurs because of weakness of the cervix.

Risk Factors: History of previous pregnancies ending in abortions in the second & early third trimester (i.e., between 13 – 30 weeks of pregnancy), any operations on the neck of the womb and repeated abortions where the pregnancy has taken out surgically.

Treatment: Once the problem of incompetence is diagnosed, the condition may be treatable through a surgical procedure called cerclage (stitching the cervix closed). One or more stitches are placed around or through the cervix to keep it tightly closed. This is usually performed after the twelfth week of pregnancy, the time after which a woman is least likely to miscarry for other reasons - but it is not done if there is rupture of the membranes or infection.

Brand Mysuru Logo, a no-go... yet

- Tourism Department says most logos look childish
- Will finalise logo only after District Minister is appointed

Mysuru, June 7 (RK&BCT)- The District Administration, as part of its plan to build Mysuru as a Brand, had invited members of the public to send in a logo design that symbolised Mysuru and display a global design appeal.

Accordingly, entries were invited and Rs. 50,000 was kept as prize money to entice designers. The designers were asked to draw the logo in such a way that the theme and symbolic elements of Mysuru were incorporated in the design and the logo should have a catchy tagline.

The last date for submitting entries was Feb. 15, 2018 and the Department of Tourism had received nearly 500 entries. Yet, it seems they haven't found a suitable logo.

"We were supposed to present the logo before the District Tourism Management Committee headed by the District In-charge Minister with the DC, SP, Commissioner of Police, Mayor, MP, MLAs and top-level officers as members. But unfortunately, the logos we received looked childish," said Tourism Department Deputy Director H. Janardhan.

Speaking to SOM, he said that since the Election Model Code of Conduct came into force in March, the Department could not finalise the logo and added saying "We received entries from Mysuru, Bengaluru and even from Mumbai but none met the expected standards; some of them looked like they had been designed by LKG and UKG children. Nowhere Mysuru and its symbols are represented."

But some of the established designers from Bengaluru and Chennai, who called SOM to ask if a logo was chosen, were surprised to learn that their work was being equated to an LKG child's work.

Interestingly, some of them said announcing prize money was the reason that many unqualified people had sent in their childish designs. One designer said good designers will design a logo for free just for the pride of having designed the logo for a globally-known tourist city like Mysuru. The Department will present the logo designs to Tourism Management Committee once a new District Minister is appointed and a final choice will be made.

Former Prez Pranab to address RSS trainees today

Daughter Sharmishta Mukherjee disapproves visit

Nagpur, June 7- Former President Pranab Mukherjee is in Nagpur where he will be the chief guest at a function of the RSS or Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh this evening. The event has generated a lot of interest and controversy over the past few days, ever since Mukherjee agreed to address RSS trainees at the Sangh's headquarters in Nagpur.

He is scheduled to arrive at the venue at 5.30 pm where he will be welcomed by RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat. Mukherjee will then have tea with Bhagwat and RSS No.2 Bhaiyyaji Joshi, after which senior functionaries of the Sangh will be introduced to him.

Pranab Mukherjee

Sharmistha Mukherjee

Eighty-two-year-old Mukherjee will visit the Memorial of RSS founder Keshav Baliram Hedgewar, offer floral tributes and reach the function venue at 6.15 pm. He is scheduled to make a 20-minute speech soon after. Finally, Bhagwat will address the gathering.

A lot of curiosity exists over what Pranab Mukherjee, who has been critical of the RSS ideology during his five-decade-long association with the Congress before he became President of India in 2012, will say. There has been disquiet in a section of the Congress after he accepted the invite, with many leaders asking him to reconsider his decision.

Yesterday, the former President's daughter Sharmistha Mukherjee hit out at Mukherjee, saying the Sangh Parivar is already calling his visit an endorsement of the saffron ideology.

"Even RSS wouldn't believe that you are going to endorse its views in your speech. But the speech will be forgotten, visuals will remain and those will be circulated with fake statements," she tweeted.

No screening of Rajini's Kaala

In Bengaluru: The first show on the first day of the release of Rajinikanth's Kaala was cancelled in Bengaluru today morning after pro-Kannada activists staged a protest.

The 10.30 am shows scheduled at Mantri Mall in Malleshwaram and Orion Mall in Rajajinagar too were cancelled.

Though the Mall authorities had issued tickets, the activists requested them to stop the process. Fearing backlash, many single screens and multiplexes followed suit and cancelled shows leaving hundreds of Rajini fans disappointed.

Karnataka Rakshana Vedike President T.A. Narayana Gowda said that Rajinikanth as an actor has failed to understand the sensibilities of his fans in Karnataka. "Cauvery is also an emotional issue. Besides, Rajini is not just an actor anymore. His political statements have hurt Kannadigas," he added.

Meanwhile, members of Karnataka Rakshana Vedike and Kannada Chaluvali Paksha chief Vatal Nagaraj were taken into custody at Orion Mall for staging protests.

Karnataka Film Chamber of Commerce President S.R. Govind said, "We will not allow the screening until Rajinikanth apologises for his statement. He is gaining political mileage out of this issue. We are not against the movie or Tamilians, we are against Rajini's statement."

"We will meet the officials and veterinary doctors in Bengaluru and place the proposal before the MCC Council and take its approval before enforcing the rules," Dr. Suresh said.

MICROCHIP INSERTION

Dr. Suresh said that the MCC had plans to make it mandatory for pet owners to insert a microchip on the shoulder part of the dog and the chip will contain details of the owner, the breed of the dog and its characteristics.

"It will cost Rs. 500 to Rs. 700 per chip and the owner has to bear the costs. Mysuru will have its own rules and regulations and enough care will be taken by the MCC to ensure that dogs and humans co-exist and at the same time, rules are followed," he said.

60,000 DOGS IN CITY

On the restriction on the number of dogs in apartments and individual houses, Dr. Suresh said that one dog per family made sense. "However, nothing is decided yet and the MCC Council will take a decision," he added.

As per MCC statistics and as per the dog census conducted in 2011, there are over 20,000 pet dogs and over 40,000 strays in Mysuru city.

There are over 20 pet clinics, 11 government veterinary hospitals and there are over 50 pet practitioners. "We will conduct another census this year to determine the exact number of pets and strays," Dr. Suresh added.

OPPOSITION TO PET LICENCE RULE

Even before the MCC implements the pet licence rule following the BBMP model, opposition seems to be growing against such proposal.

B.P. Manjunath, the President of Canine Club of Mysore told SOM that the conditions in Bengaluru were different from that of Mysuru. "In Bengaluru there is no space and the population is dense and here we have ample space with less population. Licensing of dogs is fine but the MCC must not restrict the number of pets to be owned by a family," he said.

"We will call a meeting of pet owners next week and decide on the next course of action," Manjunath added.

Marking Gandhiji's Satyagraha, Trust ties Khadi cloth to Train bogies

Mysuru, June 7(PM&DM)- Marking the commemoration of the 125th year of Mahatma Gandhi's Satyagraha in South Africa, Samarpana Trust, Kadatanalu, Srirangapatna taluk, in association with South Western Railways and a host of other organisations, tied khadi cloth to the doors of first class bogies of Tippu-Siddaganga Express in the city Railway Station this morning.

Mahatma Gandhi stickers were also pasted on the bogies. In June 7, 1893, M.K. Gandhi, then a young Indian lawyer, was discriminated against and was thrown out of a train at Pietermaritzburg, South Africa, when he was on his way to meet his clients.

This historic incident in a train compartment at Pietermaritzburg, became a catalyst for Gandhiji's Satyagraha movement.

Today, Samarpana Trust had organised this programme at the City Railway Station to spread Gandhiji's message of peace, that is specially relevant for the young.

Senior writer Prof. Karimuddin of Ganjam, Pandavapura's Venkategowda Seva Samiti President Dr.K.Y. Srinivas, Kadakola Kannada Sangha President M. Ramesh and others were present.

Merge primary, secondary education with higher education, says Horatti

Janata Dal (S) leader and former Minister Basavaraj Horatti is seen addressing a press conference in city as MLCs Marithibbegowda and K.T. Srikantegowda look on.

Mysuru, June 7 (UNI)- Senior JD(S) MLC and former Minister Basavaraj Horatti said there should be a merger of Departments of Primary and Secondary Education with the Department of Higher Education in Karnataka.

Speaking to newsmen recently, Horatti, a former Minister, claimed that Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy had already advised the Secretaries of the two Departments to explore the possibility of merging the two Departments into a single entity like ones existing in most other States.

"We should have a single Human Resource Department (HRD) like the one in the Centre and many other States", Horatti said adding that a single Ministry will ensure continuity of policies for students from primary school till their higher education.

He made a strong pitch for overhauling the provisions of Right to Education (RTE) to encourage admissions to government-run Kannada medium schools.

Pointing out that RTE only assures free and compulsory education, Horatti said parents should be made to exhaust options for admissions in Kannada medium government schools and later in government-aided educational institutions in their neighbourhood before seeking admissions in unaided private institutions.

On his induction as a Minister, Horatti said he was unlikely to find a berth in the coalition Cabinet in view of the huge demand for ministerial portfolios.

Horatti, who is serving a record seventh consecutive term as MLC representing Karnataka West Teachers' constituency, had served as Primary and Secondary Education Minister during the 20-month JD(S)-BJP alliance government headed by H.D. Kumaraswamy.

He said he preferred to stay out of the race and allow aspirants who had not got an opportunity to serve as Ministers so far.

Beat Plastic Pollution Campaign at Bandipur

'Save earth from suffocation'

Chamarajanagar, June 7 (MTY)- Commemorating World Environment Day celebrations, Vana Mahotsava programme was organised by the Forest Department across all the Forest Ranges coming under Bandipur Tiger Reserve on June 5.

At Bandipur campus

'Beat Plastic Pollution' being this year's theme of World Environment Day, the Department officials and staff, in association with the volunteers of ISHA Foundation, Mysuru centre, created awareness on how harmful is plastic usage to the environment by wearing plastic covers (with #BeatPlasticPollution and #StopPlasticSuffocation as tagline) as masks to grab the attention of tourists. Speaking about the programme, DRFO K.N. Mohan Kumar Kadagere said that the idea of wearing plastic cover as mask was to convey the message to the people that how we suffocate by covering ourselves in plastic, similar is the case of the earth when we throw plastics that are not biodegradable

RFO Srinivas, DRFO S. Srinath Reddy, Forest Guards Nethravathi, Appanna and Suresh and others were present on the occasion.

At Gundlupet

CF Ambadi Madhav, who spoke during the World Environment Day celebrations programme at Devaraja Urs Stadium in Gundlupet, said that though plastic usage has been banned, it has not been stopped completely. If plastic is thrown on the soil it doesn't decompose and this loosens soil thus resulting in soil erosion.

In order to maintain balance in Environment, we have to grow more trees and save forests, said the CFO who reminded, "Our responsibility doesn't end with just planting of saplings. We must also nurture and conserve it besides creating awareness about deforestation."

It is not just the duty of Forest Department to safeguard forests but it is the responsibility and duty of each and every individual who breath, he said. Stating that trees are cut at many places in the name of road-widening and development, he said that we should balance it by planting more trees elsewhere.

Over 700 school children took out an awareness rally on the occasion. Earlier, Gundlupet MLA C.S. Niranjan Kumar inaugurated the sapling planting programme. Gundlupet TP President K.A. Jagadish Murthy, Town Municipal President Girish, Vice-President G.K. Nagendra and others attend the event.

At Melukamanahalli Gate

Planting of saplings and seed ball disbursing was carried out at the Anjaneya Gudda Forest Region (Melukamanahalli Gate) to mark the Environment Day celebrations.

Chamarajanagar ZP President Shivamma presided over the event. Gundlupet TP President K.A. Jagadish Murthy was the chief guest.

RFO Puttaswamy, DRFOs C. Anil Kumar and K. Manjunath, Guards Naveen and Obanna, Ashrama Schools and Scouts & Guides students attended the awareness programme.

There have also been numerous reports of fish and bird deaths near the Lake in past few years. French Open: Simona Halep and Garbine Muguruza in semi-final Paris, June 7- Top seed and world number one Simona Halep defeated Angelique Kerber 6-7 (2/7), 6-3, 6-2 to reach her third French Open semi-final on Wednesday.

Top seed Simona Halep fought back to triumph in a bruising French Open quarter-final battle against Germany's Angelique Kerber and stand two wins away from her first Grand Slam title.

Halep had arrived in Paris on a hot streak, reaching at least the quarter-finals in her last nine clay-court tournaments and losing only one set on her way to facing Kerber in Paris.

But it was the German who started the stronger, out-hitting her rival, and with lethal accuracy, to win the first four games as Halep struggled to find her serving rhythm and peppered the tramlines with unforced errors.

Kerber eventually prevailed in a tiebreak, but Halep came out all guns blazing in the second, firing baseline bullets at her opponent, who tried to cling on against the onslaught.

But by the third set Halep had broken the German's defences as she banged in 76 percent of her first serves, with only half the unforced errors of her opponent.

Sharapova beaten

Garbine Muguruza thrashed Maria Sharapova 6-2, 6-1 to reach the French Open semi-finals on Wednesday, condemning the Russian to her worst Grand Slam defeat in more than six years.

TODAY'S MATCHES

Women's Singles Semi-finals: 1 S. Halep Vs 3 G. Muguruza at 6.30 pm (IST); 13 M. Keys Vs 10 S. Stephens at 7.45 pm (IST).

Rain halts play: Nadal in limbo

Paris, June 7- The women got their matches done before rain arrived at Roland Garros, leaving the men's quarter-finals suspended in progress.

That might very well have been a relief to 10-time champion Rafael Nadal, who was not at his best and dropped a French Open set for the first time since 2015.

Nadal lost the opener 6-4 against 11th-seeded Diego Schwartzman but began to play better after a rain delay of just under an hour.

Nadal was serving for the second set at 5-3, 30-15, when another shower came and action was halted for the day.

In the other men's quarter-final, number three Marin Cilic and number five Juan Martin del Potro were at 5-all in a first-set tie breaker when the match-up of past US Open champions was stopped.

Mysuru, June 7 (SPN& NNN)- International Yoga champion Kushi was felicitated by MLA S.A. Ramdas at a function here yesterday. The event was organised by Rotary Mysore Midtown in association with Rotary Heritage Mysuru at the Rotary West Auditorium. Later speaking, Ramdas said that if BJP Government had come to power, Prime Minister Narendra Modi would have inaugurated the International Day of Yoga on June 21 in the city. But, due to political ups and downs, the programme has been cancelled.

However, Ramdas called for the people of the city to participate in large numbers on June 21 and said that it was a matter of pride for all Mysureans that Kushi is the recognised face in the world of yoga. After Modi became the Prime Minister he had the distinction of taking the ancient system of yoga to the forefront in the world and was instrumental in declaring June 21 as International Day of Yoga.

"Once when PM Modi was addressing the US Senate, the Senators there gave him a standing ovation 17 times, appreciating his thoughts and ideas. No other PM in the country had so far had this kind of recognition," he said.

Thanking the voters of K.R. Constituency for his convincing victory with a huge margin, he said that he was always there in the service of the people. Recalling the time when he was student in 1974 and had come to Mysuru, when Devaraj Urs was the CM, he said that due to the untimely death of the then K.R. Constituency MLA Suryanarayan Rao there was a re-election and he remembered the speech of Urs.

"I cannot believe that I am representing the same constituency now. I am always ready to work in the interest of the constituency. The voting percentage this time was very low and the party workers had expressed their anxiety. But when the results came it was revealed that the intellectuals and informed voters had voted for me in 198 booths," he said.

Replying to the felicitation, Kushi said: "Everyone wants to be a part of the International Day of Yoga on June 21. But that will just be a one day celebration. Hence, everyone must inculcate the practise of yoga in their daily lives for healthy body and mind."

WORD OF THE DAY

Gambol

Pronunciation: ˈgam-bəl

Meaning: Skipping or leaping about in play.
Origin: In Middle French, the noun "gambade" referred to the frisky spring of a jumping horse. In the early 1500s, the English word gambol romped into print as both a verb and a noun. (The noun means "a skipping or leaping about in play.") The English word is not restricted to horses, but rather can be used of any frolicsome creature. It is a word that suggests levity and spontaneity, and it tends to be used especially of the lively activity of children or animals engaged in active play. Although the word sounds like "gamble," when you gambol you never lose — you just have a great time! Being really excited or even just slap-happy makes people gambol, and it's so energising that animals do it too. Dogs gambol when they rise on two legs to greet each other, and squirrels gambol when they chase each other up and down trees.

THE ODD WORD

Dirge

A lament for the dead, especially one forming part of a funeral rite.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

To feel under the weather

Meaning: To not feel well. It can also mean that a person is feeling sad or depressed.

Origin: This phrase possibly has nautical or seafaring origins. Commenting on the origins of this expression, a website called The Phrase Finder mentions that in the old days, when a sailor was feeling seasick, "he was sent down below to help his recovery, under the deck and away from the weather." According to another source, a book called Salty Dog Talk: The Nautical Origins of Everyday Expressions, by Bill Beavis (Author) and Micahel Howorth (Author), it says the following regarding this phrase: "To feel ill. Originally it meant to feel seasick or to be adversely affected by bad weather." It goes on to say: "The term is correctly 'under the weather bow' which is a gloomy prospect; the weather bow is the side upon which all the rotten weather is blowing."

QUOTE BOX

If you want to see the sunshine, you have to weather the storm.
